Withdrawal of Petition for Deviation

Comes now, The Taft Law Firm, P.C., Petitioner in the Petition for Deviation (Dkt. 10069). Petitioner received late notice of the Order requiring filing of the Petition for Deviation with the Court and submitted the Petition as soon as the requirement came to our attention. In acknowledgment of the timeliness issue detailed by The Magistrate Judge in the Order to Show Cause (Dkt. 10076), the Petition is hereby withdrawn.

Petitioner, through its undersigned counsel, hereby declares under penalty of perjury, that the Client/Settlement Class Member was made aware of the filing of the Petition for Deviation via his personal email and by personal telephone communication, including on the day of the filing of the Petition. Likewise, the Client was made aware of the Magistrate's Response (Order to Show Cause) and this Withdrawal of the Petition via personal email and by personal telephone communication on this day. Personal email and telephone exchanges have been our vehicle for communication from the outset of the engagement, outside of in-person communications.

Respectfully submitted,

THE TAFT LAW FIRM, P.C.
